ADVISER

Mrs. Louise Griffith

Seasons depict the beauty of nature—the colorful fallen leaves in fall, the soft feathery snow in winter, the gently unfolding blossoms in spring. We see and recognize these beauteous happenings on campus, at home, and in all of our surroundings. Here at school friendships are magnified, ideas are discovered, and fields are explored. Our memories of this school year will not change, although the seasons must. Therefore, we, the staff, present this LOLOMI to give our conception of the school life as it happened in each season of the 1963 school year of DHS because—to everything there is a season.

Fall's golden touch

reflects itself in the

shining faces of the eager sophomores. The turning leaves, the harvest moon outlining the sky, the autumn-hue bedecked girls, and the cool crisp nights at football games signify the fall season.

The quest for knowledge begins anew,

and activities start piling up.

Soon November folds softly into winter and fall is a memory.

Administration

City Superintendent of Schools
B.A., M.A., W.S.U.
Grad. Study Columbia Univ.

Mr. Martin, superintendent of schools for seventeen years, devotes his time and energy during the summer, fall, winter, and spring to assisting teachers in their goal of guiding students. Aside from his school duties, Mr. Martin was Tour Leader for the People-to-People Tour this year which furthered foreign relations with countries abroad.

Mr. Helm Retires After 42 Years

We, the students of A. C. Davis High School, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Jay Helm for his many years of teaching, service, assistance and patience.

Mr. Helm's sincerity and pleasantness has truly harvested many friendships.
All of us sincerely extend our thanks and best wishes for his future.

"But officer, I tell you, I am the safe driving instructor," pleads Mr. Helm. After fifteen years of teaching safe driving, Mr. Helm is caught with his first (?) traffic violation.

Commercial

Preparing students in the essentials for a business career with typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and clerical and secretarial procedures keeps DHS teachers constantly applying new and better methods. Techniques learned in commercial classes prove to be of inestimable value to the students.

Library

Providing enrichment for all areas of instruction and activities sponsored by the school is the aim of the library. It is a vital part of our educational program and reflects the philosophy of the school.

Our Heroes—In Victory or Defeat

Varsity coaches, William "Dutch" Schulz and Glynn Moore, concentrate on a play that proved successful throughout the season.

Football 1962

Starting with a record of wins, the Pirate Eleven, hampered by injuries and illness, ended with a four win, four loss record.

Outstanding players chosen to represent Davis on the Big Seven All Star Team were Don Allen, second team; and J. W. Brown, Mike Corpman, Larry Giffen, Mel Hollis, Steve Keeler, Bill Kring, and Truman Yeager, honorable mention. Northern League All Stars were Don Allen, J. W. Brown, and Truman Yeager, with honorable mention going to Steve Keeler, Mike Corpman, Larry Giffen, and Mel Hollis.

Receiving team honors were Steve Keeler, Honorary Captain and Inspirational Player; Truman Yeager, Traub Blocking and Tackling Award; and Bill Kring, Scholarship Award.

Junior Varsity 1962

Predominantly a sophomore squad, the "B" squad developed a toughness excelled by no other sophomore squad to date.

Sporting an 8-1 win-loss record, the junior varsity averaged 33 points per game to 7 points by the opposition.

Highlights of the season were beating Kittitas "A" squad 26-13 and trouncing Ike 33-6 to avenge an earlier loss of 19-20.

Another Richland player went down during the Homecoming game, this time to Don Allen, as Mel Hollis (17), and J. W. Brown sped up from behind.

Radiant Royalty Reigns Over Revelry

Chosen by the various clubs, nineteen girls were nominees for Homecoming royalty. The week of Homecoming, the three finalists and the three boys, chosen by the football team, were voted upon.

Although spirit was high, the Pirate eleven went down before Richland. The game proved to be full of excitement and action to the end.

Royalty for the 1962 Homecoming were Queen Sharon Ross and King Steve Keeler. Princesses and Princes were Jill Collins, Mike Corpman, Ken Lockwood, and Susie Schuler.

When the exciting moment arrived during dance intermission, Queen Sharon Ross crowned Steve Keeler 1962 Homecoming King.

"Strange Boarders" Charmed Everyone

It seems as if there's no honor among thieves as Smiley (Alan Murdock) adds Joey's body (John Cranshaw) to the pile in the cellar.

After Professor Harriman's (Mike Graham) latest invention blew up, Miss Tuttle (Glena Anderson) and Lon Dagget (Bob Berggren) try to calm him down.

"Strange Boarders" is a combination comedy and "cops and robbers." Miss Cordelia Tuttle, owner of a boardinghouse, finds her hands full between chaperoning her foster-daughter's budding romance and trying to capture a gang of bank robbers using her boardinghouse as a hide out. She is helped (or hindered) in her endeavors by her two regular boarders, an absent-minded professor and a retired sea captain.

Trying to persuade Myrtle Hodges (Barbara Wright) that it is a respectable boardinghouse, Cordelia Tuttle edges her away from the fitting room which is lodging an unrespectable body.

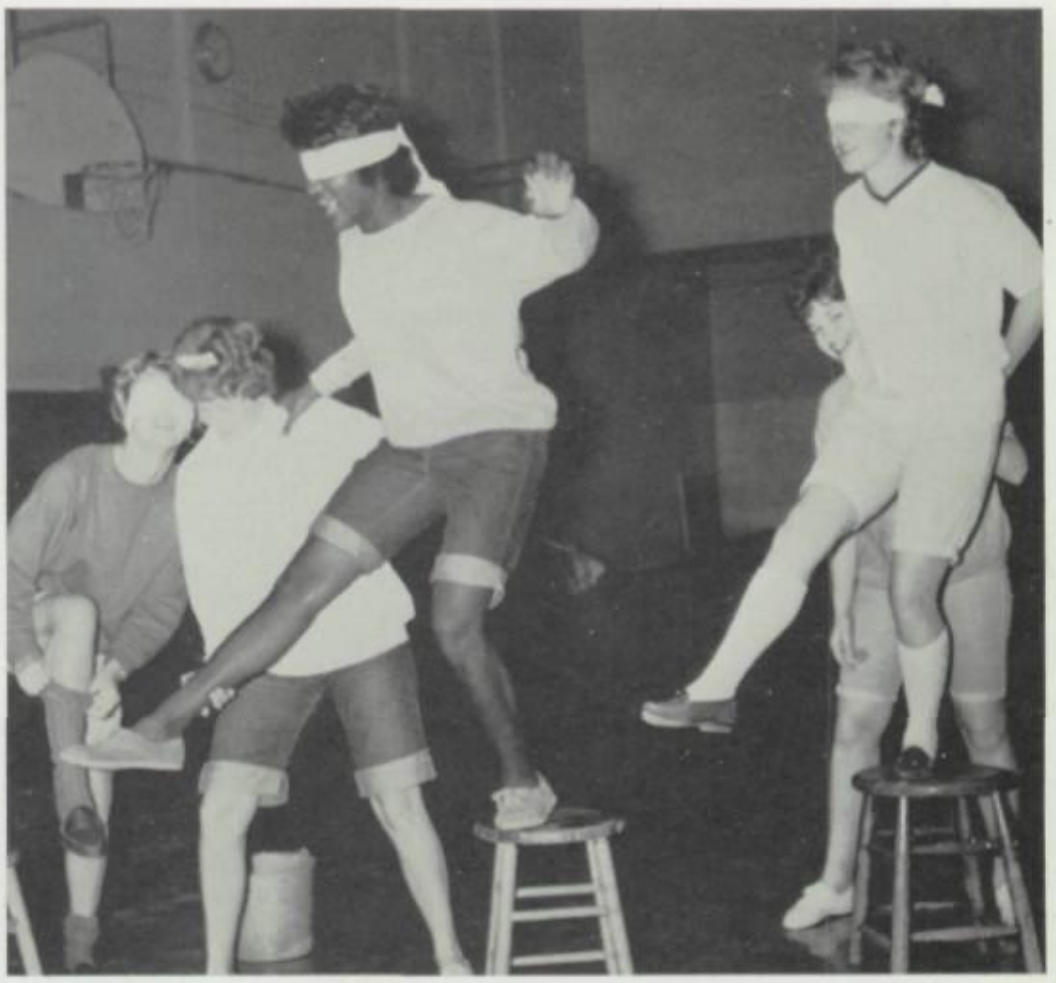
As the usual dinner of fish was announced, looks of distress flashed across Professor Harriman's, Priscilla Haines's (Kathy Baken), Amity Haines's (Kay Robinson), and John Todd's (John Cranfill) faces.

Being a JCL slave means getting dragged across a floor, staring at a wall, or doing whatever the demanding master wishes. But there's hope! For next year the slaves will be masters, and retaliation will begin.

And the seniors won again, but what a prize! Phil Hailey, in one of his numerous zany skits, was the rating man for class competition at a rousing pep assembly.

Keep It Crisp!

(DHS Motto)



To be initiated into Pirate Lassies, one has to be talented with her feet as well as to be service-minded. Demonstrating this ability are Linda Allwardt, Cherry Arnold, and Barbara Crum, supervised by Lynda Prenslow and Kay Higdon.

Wonder

Winter's blue magic

penetrates the Juniors' thoughts, startling them with the realization that their sojourn at DHS is nearly half over. The festive season steals into place almost unnoticed by busy occupied minds. Emphasizing the grand crescendo of winter, the feathery snowflakes, icy streets, and short twilight hours finally fade away.

March blossoms into spring, and winter is a memory.

Mary Hartling, treasurer; Trudy Holden, president; Mr. Arend, adviser; Susie Schuler, vice-president; Charlene Perry, secretary; and Margrett Buchholz, historian.

Susan Havard, secretary; Kay Robinson, vice-president; Kay Higdon, treasurer; Mrs. Bishop, adviser; and Mike Graham, president.

Thespians

Composed of students that have participated either on the stage or behind the scenes in school plays, Thespians is a national honorary organization. Each year their annual initiation proves to be hilarious by each initiate showing his acting ability.

Tri-M

Tri-M, Modern Music Masters, is an honorary club for outstanding students of band, orchestra, and Aeolians. Each month a "top notcher" is chosen because of his character, responsibilities, and activities in the club.

I.R.C.

Encouraging study about foreign countries and to further relations with foreign people, International Relations Club participates annually in the Model United Nations at Ellensburg. This year the club helped originate the plan for a foreign exchange student.

Debate

"Resolved: The United States should adopt a policy of reciprocal free trade with all non-Communist nations." With this topic, the debate team worked hard to keep informed and represent DHS in tournaments.

D H S Clubs Promote

Lettermen's

Recognized by their black jackets and orange chenille "D's," the members of Lettermen's Club qualify by participating in one of the six major sports. The club sponsors intramural games and highlights the year with its annual initiation.

Mr. Schulz, adviser; Phil Hailey, sergeant-at-arms; Ken Lockwood, vice-president; Mike Brzoska, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Henderson, president.

Pep Club

Displaying fervor and enthusiasm, the Girls' Pep Club inspired the student body, which won DHS the sportsmanship trophy for the second time in three years. A painted spirit basketball was awarded each week to the class with the largest percentage of students present at each home game.

Linda Allwardt, president; Melody Brown, vice-president; Cleone Hart, secretary; Judy Kauffman, treasurer; Judy Hudson, Linda Roberts, Elaine Wierman, Mrs. Graves, adviser; Kay Robinson, Lynn Crawford, Margaret Wilson, Carol Quinn, and Connie Fasano.

Efficient ushers provide their services beginning at the fall play and ending at spring graduation. Their friendliness and courtesy are appreciated by all who come to DHS performances.

Michelle Day, Loretta Berringer, Sharon Schick, Miss Webster, adviser; JoAnne Distler, Joyce Shaw, and Karen Smoot, head usher.

Distributive Education

Working toward a future in business, each Distributive Education student learns the qualities of good salesmanship. To gain this valuable experience, they take jobs in Yakima's establishments.

Danny Heit, Dave Williams, Karen Smoot, Gene Oliver, Sharon Condon, Judy Colerick, Sharon Ryno, Gail Kurbitz, Mary Ann Gregory, Jerry Niblett, and Mrs. Freeth, adviser, are some of the officers in the two DE classes.

Traffic Control

Neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow, nor blazing sun can keep the Traffic Control members from their responsibility of protecting DHS students before and after school.

Pete Vos, captain; Doug Cook, lieutenant; and Mr. Horrell, adviser.

Pirate Lassies

Valuable community service is performed by the Pirate Lassies by working at the Yakima Valley School and selling Easter Seals. Fun is not omitted, though, from the schedule of events, as proven by the tobogganing party and yearly initiation.

Service to Others Is Promoted

Boys' League

Sponsoring Twirp Week, the boys' joyful time, and the annual talent show, Pirate Hi-Lights, Boys' League is an active organization which was noted this year for its help with the foreign student project.

Ken Lockwood, secretary; Mr. Suhm, adviser; Dwight Long, president; Scott Wilson, treasurer; and Jim Heintz, vice-president.

Sherar, adviser; and Marie Reyes, secretary-treasurer. NOT PICTURED: Shirley Pleasant, Easter Seal co-chairman.

Girls' League

Sponsoring Christmas baskets for needy families, selecting a Girl of the Month, welcoming the sophomores at the Big Sister Party, and honoring DHS mothers at the Mother-Daughter Tea were activities planned and carried out to perfection by the diligent Girls' League.

By Clubs

Knight of the Cutlass

Always working at all activities instead of playing, the Knights of the Cutlass performed their services at DHS functions including games, plays, and concerts.

Bob Wolff, president; Mr. Van Doren, adviser; and Merle Ferguson, executive secretary.

J.C.L.

Students of the ancient Roman tongue belong to the Junior Classical League. At the annual JCL banquet held in the spring, members dressed in Roman attire to enjoy entertainment and good food.

Ken Lockwood, treasurer; Larry Olson, vice-president; Dave Distler, president; Miss Conner, adviser; and Reggie Doern, secretary.

Mary Rivera, committee chairman; Colleen Holmes, secretary-treasurer; Roxie Little, vice-president; Mr. Bryant, adviser; and Lynn Crawford, president.

Spanish Club

Bright-eyed señores and smiling señoritas enjoy the varied activities of the Spanish Club. "One World," theme of the banquet sponsored by the Spanish, French, and International Relations Clubs, was held to raise money for the foreign exchange student program.

French Club

Many a mademoiselle and monsieur become familiar with the customs and the country of France through the French Club. The annual banquet, which was a joint effort with two other clubs this year, and candy sales helped members discover the French flavor in their lives.

Kristine Bottger, secretary-treasurer; Linda Larsen, president; Sandra Dahlin, co-ordinating committee head; Mrs. Costa, adviser; and Cherry Arnold, vice-president.

F.S.A.

Dreams of becoming a successful secretary spur the Future Secretaries of America members to strive to achieve their goals. Lectures, pamphlets, and general experience bring the glamour closer to reality.

SITTING: Margrett Buchholz, president. STANDING: Jill Collins, secretary-treasurer; Linda Bachmann, program chairman; Jackie Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Burpee, adviser; and Shirley Otto, publicity chairman.

Clubs Focus on Foreign Cultures and Future Careers

Stepping high with smiles aplenty, the DHS Pirettes thrill the crowds at games and parades with their clever routines and sharp marching.

Variety of Clubs Proves to Be the Spice

Library Club

Library Club members keep our library in tip-top shape by keeping it orderly and by helping to maintain the good repair of books and magazines. In addition to these time consuming activities, they found time to hold candy sales and their annual white elephant sale.

Mrs. Pierce, adviser; Elaine Froehlich, secretary-treasurer; Shari Crawford, president; Shirley Pleasant, board member; Bette Colgan, vice-president; and Jeanette Gregory, board member.

Stage Crew

Because of the hard work and efficiency of the stage crew, DHS concerts, plays, assemblies, and other programs go on with proper setting and scenery.

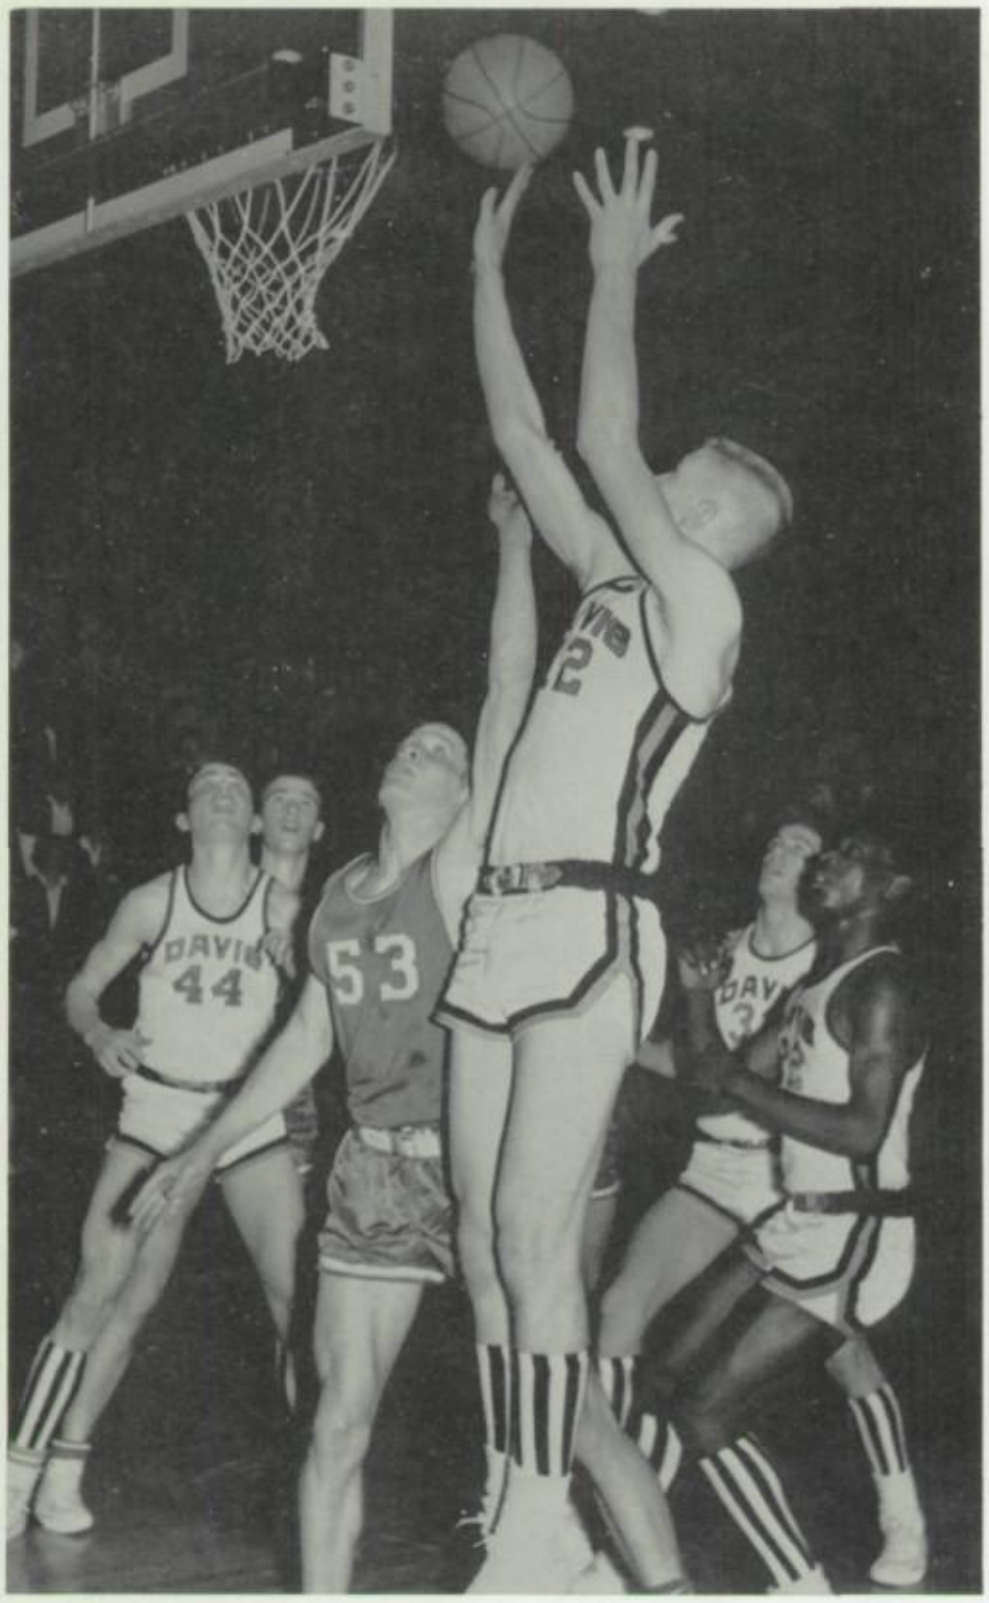
Spirited sparkplugs in the form of the mascot, cheerleaders, and rally squad set the DHS stands afire with their spontaneous pep and personalities. Through each season, these vivacious leaders were ready, willing, and able to cheer DHS on to victory.

ABOVE: "Beat Eisenhower!" was the theme of the rally and car caravan preceding the Davis-Ike football game led by the tireless twelve pepsters backed by the bouncy music of the band.

Livening up the pep assemblies with their snappy routines, the rally squad led the student body in the DHS Fight Song.



Ted Wierman rallied for two more points against Ellensburg as Larry Giffen (44), Mike Corpman, and Don Allen were prepared to assist.

Basketball 1963

Sporting a seasonal record of sixteen wins and seven losses, the Davis crew possessed the best record since Yakima High became Davis High six years ago. Coach Larry Pryse proved that Davis has the playing ability and versatility which make a good team.

Highlights for the team and student body were smashing Eisenhower 64 to 50, placing third in the Big Nine Conference, qualifying for district, and winning the sportsmanship trophy for the second time in three years.

Ted Wierman, 6'7½" sophomore, was chosen first man on the second squad for the Big Nine All-Stars, with Lennie Allen, 5'8" sophomore, placing as honorable mention.

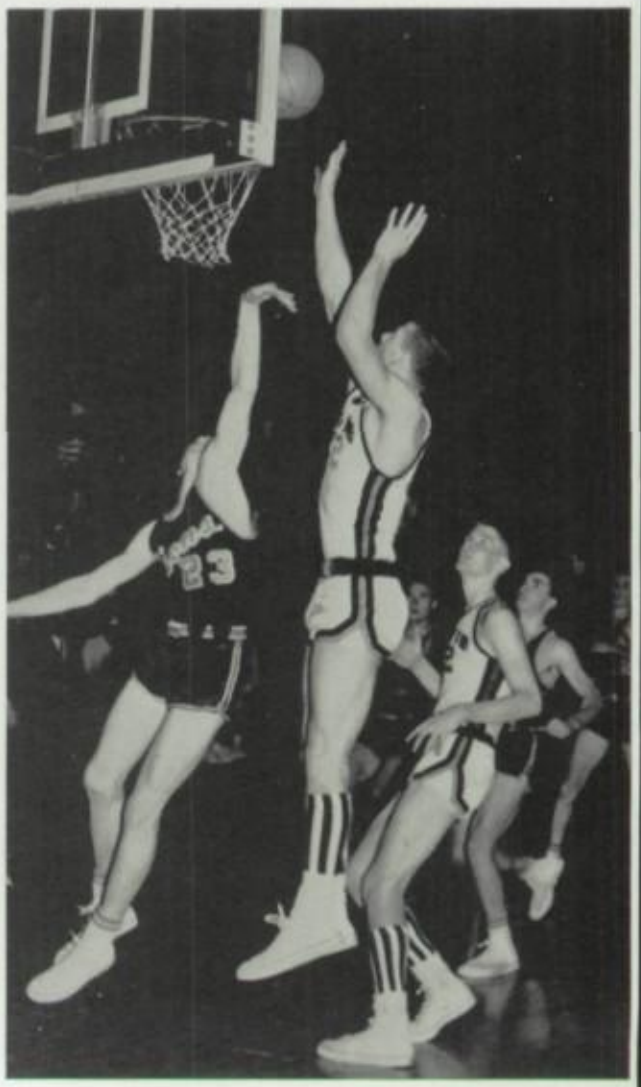
Under the able leadership of "B" squad coach Al Moss, left, and "A" squad coach Larry Pryse, the Davis basketball team had a winning season.

Bill Roberson (43), and Larry Giffen (41), go up grabbing for a loose ball against two Eisenhower opponents in hope of upping the score another notch.

In a close contest against Pasco, Jim "Wee Willie" Williams goes up for two more points as Don Allen (22), stood ready for action.

Showing the versatility he possesses, Mike Corpman fires a jump shot toward the hoop to widen the score against Kennewick as Ted Wierman watches the action.



Red, White and Blue Loses to Orange and Black

(D H S Whips Ike!)

Davis faculty members challenged the Eisenhower faculty to a basketball game with proceeds from the game going to the foreign exchange student fund. The DHS faculty, displaying their bulges, bunions, and bald heads, piled up an impressive score of 23 to 11 over Ike, much to the amusement and enjoyment of both student bodies.

Although the Junior Varsity ended the season with a seven win and eleven loss record, the squad gained valuable experience. Through hard work and good coaching, most of the Junior Varsity will be able to join the ranks of the varsity squad next year.

RIGHT: Basketball award winners for the varsity squad were Steve Keeler, honorary captain and scholarship awards, and Mike Corpman, inspiration and captain awards.

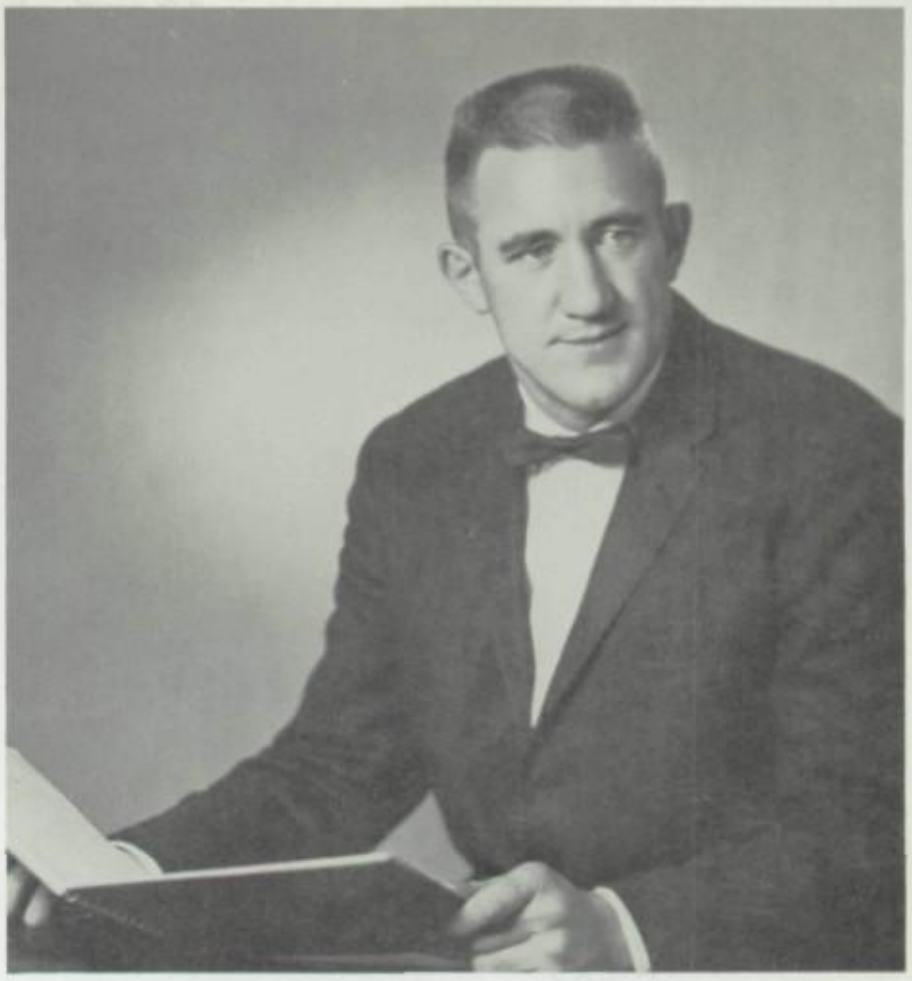
Wrestling 1963

With a season of hard work, good sportsmanship, and a difficult schedule, DHS wrestlers compiled an impressive record of ten wins, three losses, and one tie.

Tieing for first place in the Northern District, the team placed eight men for district, where the team came in second.

John Hipner, Bob Dobson, Jerry Dobson, and Ken Lockwood won berths at the state meet with John Hipner placing third in the 103-pound weight division.



Mr. Messenger, inspiring each wrestler, taught the matmen basic techniques and helped to develop their skills.

Tom Clark, right, in the Monster Mash, and Sharon Philmalee, above, with her acrobatic stunts, were two of the attractions in the annual Pirate Hi-Lights.

Full of Seasonal

Everyone lived it up at the "Happy Holly Daze," the Mid-Winter Formal, with its seasonal decorations and Christmas spirit. The gigantic Christmas tree in the center of the floor with its bright lights and gaily colored balls was the main attraction for the gala event.

Winter—

"Beat-M," the sign on Mr. McCall's trousers, was echoed by the other cheerleaders, Mr. Winegar, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Hastings, Mr. McCardell, and Mr. Bontrager (not shown) the night of the big Davis-Ike faculty game. With the cheers vibrating through the gym, the DHS faculty overpowered Eisenhower 23-11.

Comprise Junior Class

Since a new section was added to the language lab in '61, it now consists of 30 listening and repeating booths with 14 booths for listening, repeating, and recording.

Five separate lessons can be programmed into the 44 booths simultaneously. By a flip of a switch the instructor may listen in on an individual student. Members of one of the 12 classes of French, Spanish, and German which use them daily are Pat Ross, Bob Fikkan, Robin Palmer, Jerry Hanson, and Kirby Kelly.

Spring

Sun

Spice

Splendor

With spring comes an upward surge of spirits, especially for Seniors. Spring fever wages a battle with the academic world; antagonized by thoughts of the Prom, Graduation, and Skip Week. Bermudas, sunglasses, tennis rackets, and water skis all come out of hibernation. The laughing sunlit days remind us that Commencement, summer jobs, and fun are just around the corner. Seniors' memories are tempered by anticipation of the future. This is the radiant awakening of spring, that melts into summer, and spring, too, is a memory.

The two coaches that led the Pirate teams to victory were, left, Vaile Bryant, Varsity, and Bill Hiblar, Junior Varsity.

Baseball

Tieing for second place in the Northern Division, the Pirate Nine had a seasonal record of twelve wins and five losses.

The players showed the potential and drive that make a great team. The sophomores, juniors, and six returning lettermen made a fine showing as a team.

Bruises Generate Brilliance

With the coming of spring came the beginning of the 1963 baseball season. Under the leadership of Coach Bill Hiblar, the team practiced hard and swung into the season with the hope of continuing the DHS tradition of successful baseball teams.

Senior catcher Wayne Hathaway returns to first base before the ball reaches the baseman's glove.

Steve "Skip" Droles tags a Highland runner as he tries to slide back to first base.

D H S Racket Squad Shows Spirit and Determination

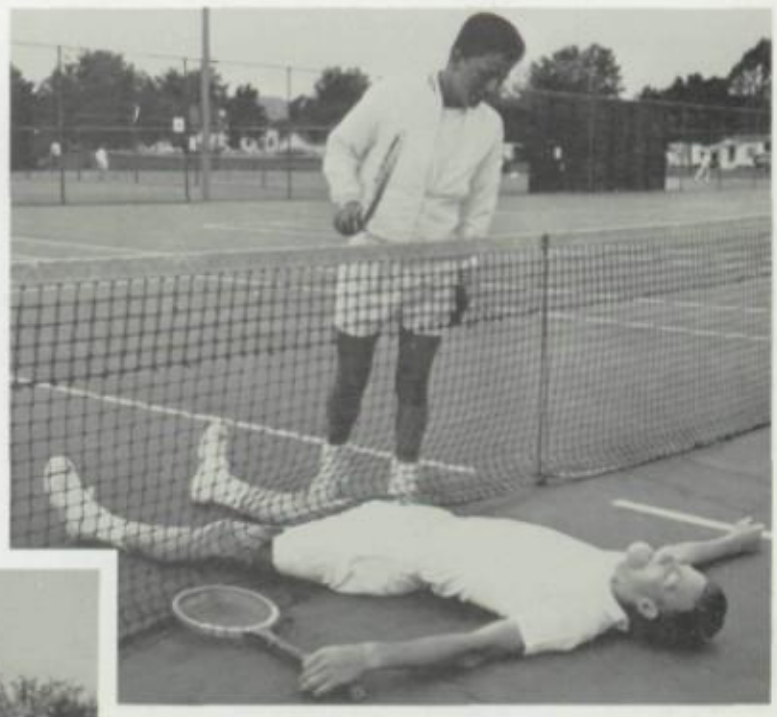
Tennis 1963

Under the able leadership of tennis coach Al Moss, the DHS tennis team finished the season with a 7 win, 5 loss, and 3 tie record.

Highlighting the season was a trip to Spokane for the Inland Empire High School Tournament. Making the trip and a fine showing were: Doug Cook, Del Carmichael, Mike Graham, Scott Geoghegan, and Ted Wierman.

Through the patient teaching of tennis coach Al Moss, the team had a successful season.

GIRLS' VARSITY—KNEELING: Ann Mon Wai, Lynn Crawford, Lynn Williams, and Sharon Baumgartner. STANDING: Tana Crawford, Janis Hunter, Colleen Holmes, and Sharon Ross.



Scott Geoghegan, Yakima Valley Boys' Singles Champion, missed the mark but hit the mouth—of Mike Graham, who was selected the most inspirational netter. (Mike may need some inspiration to recover from the shock of the shot!)

D H S Tracksters Show Versatility and Agility

Track 1963

Participating in nine track meets during the season, the Pirate thinclads won two of these meets and placed second in five others. The highlight of the regular track season was winning the West Valley Invitational.

Davis High trackmen placed seven men and two relay teams in the Yakima Valley District Meet in Pasco. DHS then sent Pete Brown, mile run; Len Kunz, 880 yard run; and Ken Lockwood, javelin; to the State Meet in Pullman. Ken Lockwood placed second in state in the javelin event with a toss of 186 feet 9½ inches.

Glynn Moore, assistant coach; Kenneth Leendertsen, head coach, and Ken Edwards, assistant coach, were great assets to the track team and their victories.

Warming up for the mile run, Pete Brown went on to place first at district and ran in the mile run at the state meet.

POLE VAULTERS AND HIGH JUMPERS—Jim Norris, John Roark, Jim Williams, Jerry Ramos, Harold Sliger, Don Allen, Mike Sorenson, and Jim Dornan.

Stretching forward in hopes of bettering his last jump, Jerry Ramos demonstrates the style that helped him to be one of DHS's star broad jumpers.

Track managers keep track of equipment, time runners, and do odd jobs to help the team. Bill Frazier and Richard Livingston lived up to the expectations of their job.

PIRATE LASSIE 4TH AWARD WINNERS—ROW ONE: Margrett Buchholz, Shirley Moe, Ann Mon Wai, Marie Reyes, Donna Monasmith, and Sandy Wilson. ROW TWO: Sue Coleman, Judy Caruthers, Roxanne Little, Vicki Choszewski, Lynda Prenslow, Linda Bachmann, and Judy Strom.

GIRLS' AWARD WINNERS—SEATED: Margrett Buchholz, Pirate Lassie Achievement Award; and Linda Allwardt, Pep Club Inspirational Award. STANDING: Barbara Crum, Pirette Inspirational Award; Shirley Pleasant, Easter Seals and Lily Project Trophy; Lucy Herron, Junior Basketball Championship Trophy; and Ann Mon Wai, Soroptimist Girl of the Year.

Girls Excel in Sports

Excelling in all sports, these girls qualified for the P.E. physical fitness honor roll. They were active in their P.E. classes and also participated in after-school sports, which included basketball, volleyball, ring volley, badminton, baseball, track, tumbling, and "slimnastics."

P.E. HONOR ROLL WINNERS—STANDING: Sharon Harris and Lucy Herron. SITTING: Bobbie Miller, Cheryl Livingston, and Ruby Arnold. NOT PICTURED: Sue Day and Sue Martin.

"Imaginary Invalid," Remedy for All Ills

"The Imaginary Invalid," the first production done at DHS in period costumes, is a satire on doctors and medicine. Argan, a spoiled hypochondriac, has many problems with his gold-digging wife, his impish maid, and the choice of a husband for his oldest daughter.

As Mr. Diafoirus (Rich Van Horn) and Argan (John Cranfill) discuss wedding plans for their children, Toinette makes fun of prissy Thomas Diafoirus (Phil Hailey).

Angelique (Eileen Patterson) is startled to see her true lover Cleante (Kelly Martin) masquerading as a music teacher in front of the maid Toinette and her father Argan.

CAST — SITTING: Eileen Patterson, John Cranfill, and Kay Robinson. STANDING: Kelly Martin, Bob Berggren, Lolene Gubler, Mrs. Bishop, director; Alan Murdock, Phil Hailey, Rich Van Horn, Bill Long, Carol Brooks, and John Cranshaw.

Around the Leading the Grand March were the top V.I.P.'s which included the school board, faculty, administration, and parents.

Students participated in the first Grand March held in the history of the Yakima schools.

Twisting on the SS Davis was a high point of the evening for everyone, especially these juniors.

World on the S.S. Davis

Passengers boarded the S.S. Davis for a memorable cruise around the world at the Junior-Senior Reception. The theme, "Bon Voyage," was carried out with the help of the head navigator, Mrs. Pat Hastings, advisers, and members of the junior class. As the voyage came to an end, Don Graham's band hailed a fond farewell to honored seniors and their guests.

Mike Graham and Carol Patterson were caught in the enchantment of the evening.

Crossing the gangplank, passengers Jackie Smith and Louie Wishert were greeted by the steward who issued their programs.

Hours flew by as couples whirled around the beautifully decorated anchor.

D H S Saunters into Spring Activities

During the annual initiation, the Lettermen's initiate chorus line did the can-can to the claps and catcalls of their masters who also jeered at the initiates' sophisticated attire and shapely legs.

Mrs. Freeth poured at the Mother-Daughter Tea along with Miss Pecar and the co-advisers of Girls' League, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Mary Lou Schmidt, a former DHS teacher, spoke on the theme of the tea, "The Woman I Am."

Pat Park, a junior, brought honor to DHS by placing second in the annual Eagle's Spelling Bee.

On the cafeteria table at lunch, Neva Karp, at the insistence of the howling boys, sang her giggling rendition of the Twirp Week theme song, "Mickey Mouse."

Boys Do the Waitin'

While Girls Do the Chasin'

Danielle Amos is put through Twirp Week paces by carrying books, wearing mis-matched clothing, and, of course, singing M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E.

Wheelbarrow races were just one of the sentences pronounced upon the rule-breakers at Kangaroo Kourt at the Twirp dance.

Awards and Honors Descend

Kay Robinson and Mike Graham, the senior class clowns, were rewarded for their many successful performances in DHS plays by both receiving the Drama Award.

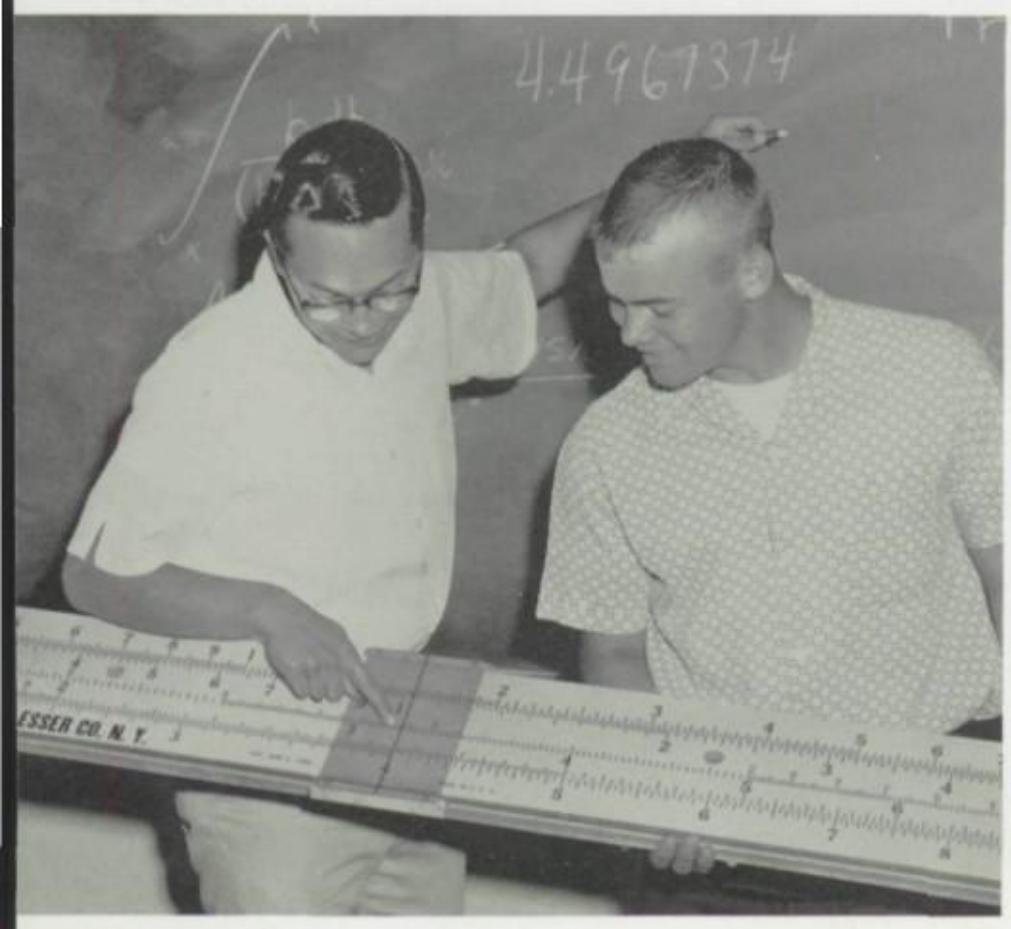
DHS music participants were awarded special honors for their many hours of practicing to make perfect. The participants are: Mary Hartling, Aeolians' Inspirational Award; Susie Schuler, Mildred Forsling Achievement Award; Fred Easter and Larry Armstrong, All-Northwest Music Festival at Casper, Wyoming. NOT PICTURED: Wayne Hathaway, John Philip Sousa Band Award.

Mike Sonsalla, Neal Broadbent, and Bob Wolff were selected to represent DHS at Boys State this summer at Pacific Lutheran University while Colleen Holmes travels to CWSC for Evergreen Girls State.

Upon D H S

Ken Lockwood received the Athlete of the Year Award as a result of his full-time schedule of sports which included playing tackle on the football team, wrestling in the 175 pound division at the state contest, and throwing the javelin 186 feet, 9 ½ inches to capture second place at state.

The Yakima Exchange Club honored Phil Hailey, Steve Keeler, Bill Kring, and Sam Keck as Boys of the Month. Bill Kring was also selected as Boy of the Year.



DHS placed second highest among 156 schools in the annual state high school mathematics contest, thanks to Charles Peterson (high man on the team), Sam Keck, and Bill Kring.

Joy Wilson, a hard worker for DHS, was selected by the Altrusa Club as Girl of the Year. Joy was the American Field Service representative for foreign exchange student fund, and, also, was named the outstanding Hi-Time reporter for the Yakima Daily Herald.

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service—the requirements for acceptance into National Honor Society—are the ideals of each member. Selected under these standards, each member is proud and honored to bear the torch of knowledge as a symbol of high achievement.

Officers:
Carol McMullen, treasurer; Larry Olson, president; Miss Mathieson, adviser; Tom Brown, vice-president; and Shirley Moe, secretary.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Marti Albers, treasurer; Karen Robbins, secretary; Jimmy Lee Brown, vice-president; Phil Hailey, president; and Mr. Winegar, head adviser.

At last, we've made it! Our big senior year was just as wonderful as we expected it would be. We "dug" industriously into homework but didn't neglect games, "stomps," club projects, and long awaited events. Greatly anticipated, the Junior-Senior Prom was a gala climax for all of our dreams. We suffered through themes, term papers, and poetry until "spring fever" and "senioritis" lightened the load. All too soon, graduation was here. The Senior Assembly and Luncheon brought laughs and tears as the past and future were brought to view. Then we, in our caps and gowns, marched proudly forward to receive our reward for twelve years well done. Our anxieties, fun, and high school life came to an end as the All-Night Party closed the door to three memorable years at our DHS.

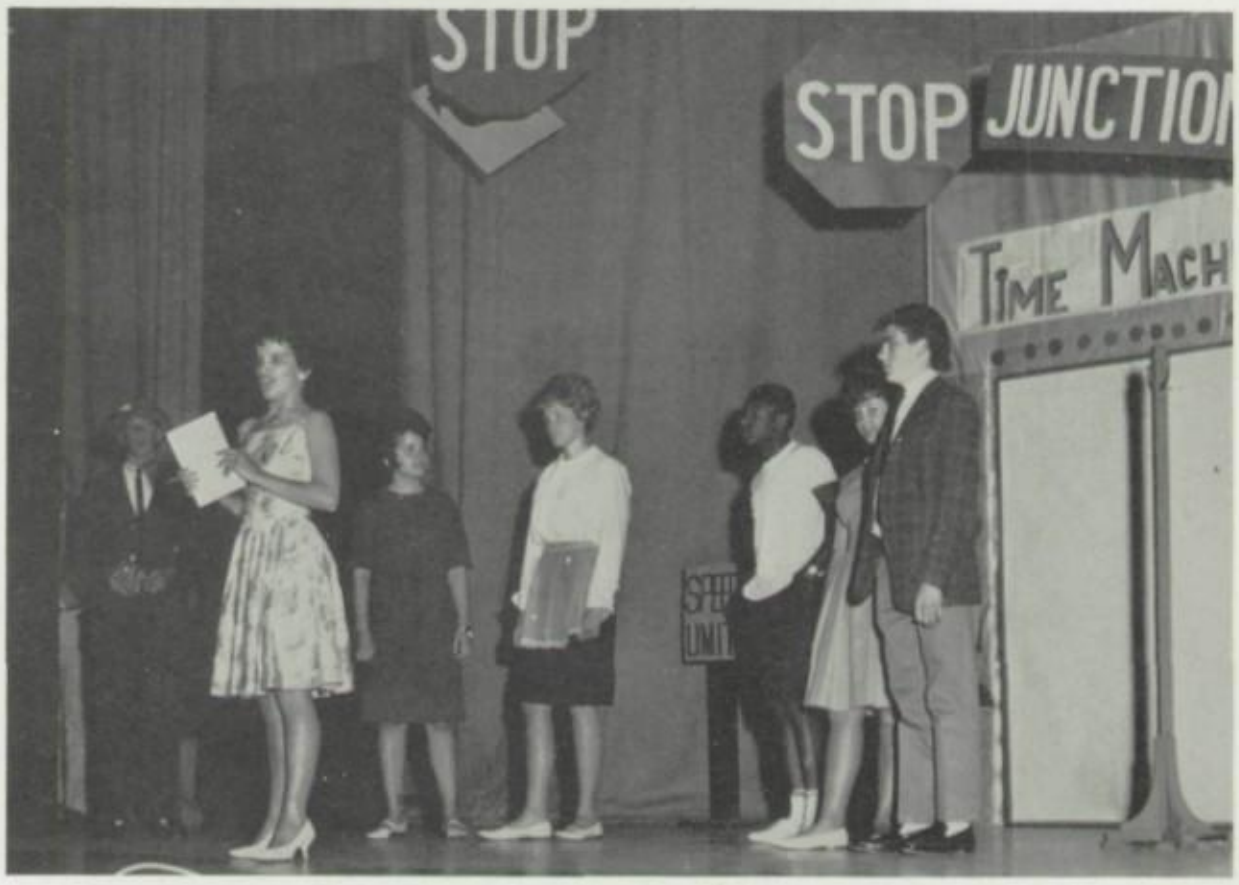
Singing the Alma Mater for the last time, the seniors reminisce but yet wonder what the future holds for them.



With the time machine as an aid, the seniors were transported to 1983 to their twentieth reunion and saw themselves portrayed by the sophomores and juniors who organized the Senior Assembly.

Senior Assembly and Luncheon— Avenues of Achievement Through Experiences and Associations

Having satisfied their hearty appetites, the senior class settled back for entertainment and the hilarious reading of the Class History and Prophecy.

Baccalaureate— Avenues of Achievement Through Faith

Seniors of the Class of '63 received inspiration from Reverend Kenneth Bomberg's address, "Avenues of Achievement Through Faith." Reverend Robert Philips gave the scripture reading and prayer and Reverend Daniel Lehman the Invocation and Benediction.

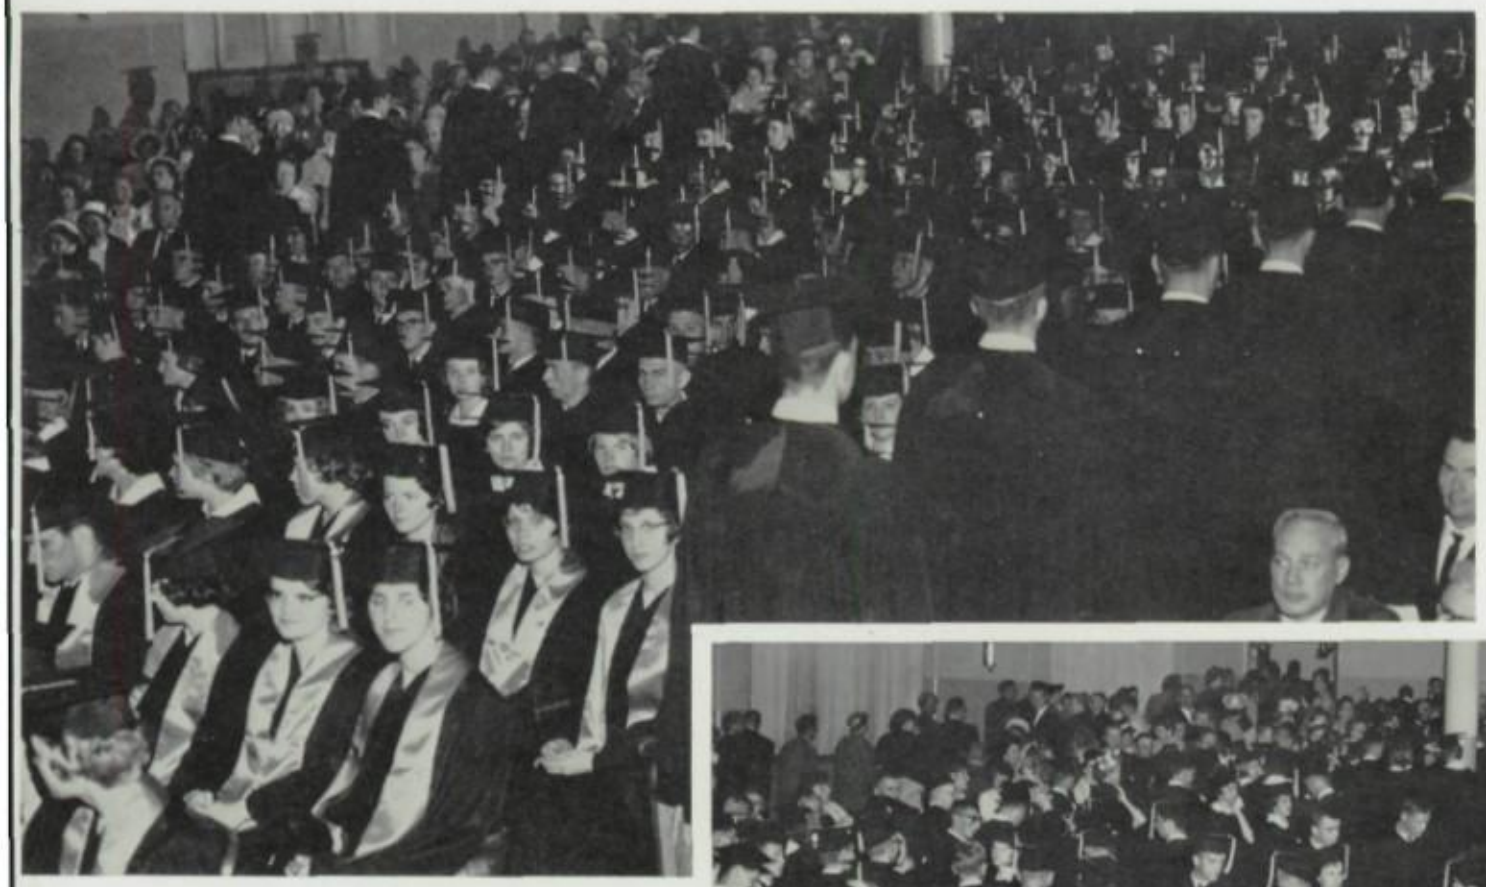
BENEDICTION ..... Reverend Raymond L. Hartling

Nineteen of the deserving seniors wait patiently to receive their special awards and honors from Mr. Davidson and Miss Pecar.

Basing his address around the theme, "Achievement Through Academic Accomplishment," Dr. James Brooks of CWSC inspired the graduates to broaden their education from all sources of everyday living.

Commencement — Avenues of Achievements Through Education



Dignity and pride prevailed over the audience as the seniors marched proudly to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance;" but immediately after the program an air of sadness mixed with gladness enveloped the seniors.

"Say, boy, we dive from the high board to the water not from the water to the diving board," but Doug Koontz, DHS's Tarzan, pays Mr. Schulz no heed, for he's developed his own style of swimming.

After locker clean-out many things are thrown away, but this is going too far. Steve Kearby, was your locker partner that uncooperative?

It's through! The LOLOMI is finally done! As the final copies are ready to be shipped away, Carol McMullen, the editor, is ready to be shipped away to who-knows-where, while the rest of the senior staff, Lynda Prenslow, Linda Bachmann, Marti Albers, Rich Van Horn, and Carrol Johnson remember all the frantic days and hours it took to finish up the book.

Season-Weary Staff Says "So Long"

Relaxing around the pool while enjoying the laziness of summer, the Senior Staff reminds the Junior Staff, "There's another year ahead for you."

IN THE POOL: Pete Mon Wai, Steve Zuber, Carol Parks, Marge Arnold, Pat Ross, and Pat Harris. ON THE DECK: Wayne Light, Mrs. Griffith, Linda Bachmann, Carrol Johnson, Carol McMullen, Lynda Prenslow, Marti Albers, Rich Van Horn, and Carol Quinn.

Summer's here! Throughout the three seasons displayed in this book, we, the 1963 LOLOMI STAFF, have tried to portray our school and its life just as it happened. Now the school year is ended, marking the beginning of summer and vacation for all of us. We hope all of you will truly enjoy this annual and through the photographs and the printed words see the true spirit of DHS. To you, the students, who really are DHS, we give this book, hoping that you will always remember — to everything there is a season.

Thank You . . .
